"We spent a wonderful bank holiday weekend in this comfortable and attractive cottage. It was so peaceful and lovely that we didn't want to leave!"
- Clare, Dover

Pollardine Farm is situated some 300m above sea level in the Shropshire Hills, in an area of 'outstanding natural beauty'.

It is marked on the very bottom edge of the OS Landranger Map 126 at about 39.2.

Sheep and suckler cows graze the farmland and wild flower patches of cover crop encourage red kite, buzzards, curlew, lapwing, skylark, woodpecker, sparrows, tits, housemartins and many other wild birds.

Some 12 miles out of Shrewsbury, the nearest village is Pontesbury which boasts an excellent butchers and bakery, a newsagent/general store, a chemist, post office and various take away outlets.

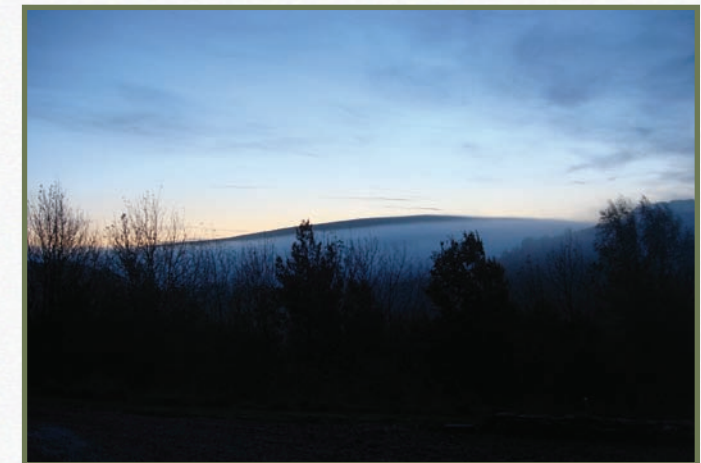

The holiday cottage welcomes you with cereal, milk, bread and spreads for breakfast as well as tea, sugar, coffee and a bowl of fruit.

The property comprises of a large lounge area with 2 two seater sofas which convert to beds, an HDTV with DVD/CD player, landline and wifi. The built-in kitchen has a washer/drier, dishwasher, fridge freezer, microwave, ceramic hob and oven. There is also a wet room with shower, wc and wash hand basin. The main bedroom has a double bed, dressing table and built in wardrobes and the second bedroom has two single beds. All bed linen and towels are provided and electricity is included.

Also wonderful in winter....

There are many exciting views and walks from such a base and also many interesting places to visit in the locality, details of which can be found in the holiday cottage.
